

SPECIÁLNÍ SORBČNÍ TKANINY SST 1000 A SST 2000

SPECIÁLNÍ SORBČNÍ TKANINY (SPECIAL SORBLE FABRICS) consist of two layers. The first is made of polypropylene microfibers and guarantees excellent sorption properties. The second layer consists of an impermeable foil, which guarantees the strength of the fabric and its impermeability.

USAGE

SST 1000 and SST 2000 are of primary use in mitigating the consequences of environmental accidents, their elimination and as an effective prevention against them. They are used to catch dripping fatty substances in car repair shops, machine shops, used car dealerships (instead of bathtubs under engines), and to catch harmful substances leaking from damaged or punctured barrels and tanks. They are very often used when working machines in the wild - in agriculture, forestry and earthworks. SSTs are very popular among hauliers and car drivers, thanks to the impermeable film that guarantees that the worker lies dry when working on a wet road. SST 2000 enables the sorption of petroleum substances from water levels. SST 2000 - special sorption material for liquidation of oil accidents from solid surfaces and water levels. It does not suck water. SST 1000 - universal sorption material, excellently absorbs oil emulsions, aqueous solutions and petroleum substances. It sucks water.

USER MANUAL

1. Use personal protective equipment depending on the type of fluid being disposed of.
2. Spread the SST at the application site, allow the liquid to soak.
3. After saturating the SST, remove to a suitable container.
4. Discard according to the nature of the absorbed liquid.

NOTICE

The product is non-toxic and harmless to health when not in use. The properties of a saturated fabric are affected by the properties of the absorbed substances. These substances determine the method of disposal.
